

Warm-ups for the week of 10/28

1. What IS GDP?
2. What is the capital of Saudi Arabia?
3. When was Saudi Arabia created?
4. What percentage of S.A. is Sunni Muslim? Shia?
What's the difference between these groups?

SS Agenda for 10/31/19

1. Warm-up (p. 31)

2. Anticipation guide (p. 32)

3. Make your own country

I can identify the economics of SW Asian countries by answering the anticipation guide.

I can explain how citizens participate in government by creating my own government with laws and designing a capital.

Name: _____

SW Asia Economies Anticipation Guide

SW Asia Economies Anticipation Guide (Some of the questions will have page numbers and others use your brain.)

1. What does it mean to study a country's economy?
2. Why do you think we study economies?
3. What is the name of Saudi currency? (96)
4. What is the literacy rate in Saudi Arabia? (97)
5. How much money does S.A. spend on education? (percentage of GDP page 97)
6. What type of economy does S.A. have? (112)
7. What is Saudi Arabia's top export? (113)
8. Based on the economic continuum, does Saudi Arabia have a more free or more command economy compared to the USA? (113)

Write the answers to these questions on page 32 in your ss notebook.

I can identify the economics of SW Asian countries by answering the anticipation guide.

Your own country

- If you were to create your own country, what would it be like?
- What type of government would it have? Why? Explain your government.
- What are the three most important laws your country would have? Why?
- What would it be called?
- What would the people be called?
- What language would they speak?
- What would be some famous landmarks?
- What would the weather be like?
- What would your country's flag look like? What would be the colors? Why?
- Feel free to add anything that's not listed in the above questions.

#46

1. Define the term egregious. (ĭ-grē'jəs)
2. Write the part of speech for the term.
3. Use the term in a sentence.
4. Write one synonym for the term.
5. Write one antonym for the term.

Dictionaries are on the file cabinet
in the corner.

Choose one of the following stories from your Springboard book and complete a one-pager story summary.

- “The Scholarship Jacket,” p. 14
- “Bad Boy,” p. 24
- “Why Couldn’t I Have Been Named Ashley?” p. 36
- “Phaethon,” p. 50
- “Arachne,” p. 61
- “The Legend of Sleepy Hollow”

- Exposition
- Rising action
- Climax
- Falling action
- resolution
- conflict
- Direct characterization
- Indirect characterization
- Protagonist/antagonist
- Simile
- Metaphor
- Personification
- Hyperbole
- Sensory details
- Denotation
- Connotation
- Myth ("Arachne" or "Phaethon")
- Legend ("The Legend of Sleepy Hollow")

Choose only one example of figurative language.

Island of the Blue Dolphins		Theme	Explanation of Theme	Symbols	Summary
Kill or be killed.		Direct Characterization	"The sai-sai is the color of silver." "They made much odor."	 canoe  spoon  high rock	Karana's getting lonely and still has to kill the wild dogs.
					Headland - a narrow piece of land that projects from a coastline into the sea
		Indirect Characterization	"Not much bigger than a finger." "On nights when the moon shines full, these little fish come swimming out of the sea in schools so thick that you can almost walk on them."		League - a former measure of distance by land, usually about three miles
					Wild dog - a wild member of the dog family, especially the hunting dog of Africa, the dhole of India, or the dingo of Australia
					Kill - cause the death of a person, animal, or other living thing
		Figurative Language	"Fog crept in and out of the empty huts." "I felt like the bride of the chief as I walked there by the waves." "The early morning sun shone like gold on their glossy pelts."	Summary	Karana burns all of the huts in the village and decides to never go back again. She moves to a high rock by the beach. She makes a bow and arrow to defend herself against wild dogs. Then, she goes on a voyage looking for land. After several days, Karana goes back to the high rock. She builds a house and fence to protect herself from wild dogs, wind, and large predators.
					Valley - a low area of land between hills or mountains, typically with a river or stream flowing through it
					Omen - an event regarded as a portent of good or evil
					Voyage - a long journey involving travel by sea or space
					Spearhead - the point of a point

ELA Agenda for 10/31/19

1. Warm-up #46 (p. 23)

2. One-pager

I can explain the characteristics of a story through a one-page summary.